

Game Notes: No. 8 Texas Tech 76, No. 9 TCU 58

Big 12 Championship Notes

- This is the 50th meeting between Texas Tech and TCU, and only the second meeting between the two teams at the Championship. Texas Tech improved to 1-1 against TCU, with their first meeting in 2014 when No. 7 seed TCU beat No. 10 seed TTU, 75-59.
- No. 8 Texas Tech and No. 1 Baylor will meet for the fifth time in the second round of the Big 12 Championship, including the second year in a row. Baylor has won the previous four matchups.
- Texas Tech is now 6-6 in the first round, and has reached the second round for the second-straight year.
- With 28 points in the fourth quarter, Texas Tech ties the record for the most points scored in a quarter in a Big 12 Championship game. Texas Tech held TCU to 11 points in the second quarter, which is currently the fewest points allowed in a quarter.
- The margin of victory (18 points) is the largest in a No. 8 vs. No. 9 match-up since TTU beat Texas 81-58 in 2012.
- Texas Tech Coach Candi Whitaker improves to 2-3 in the Big 12 Championship games, winning her last two-straight opening round appearances.

Individual & Team Notes

- Texas Tech now leads the all-time series against TCU 42-8, including 8-1 in neutral sites. Tech improves to 8-1 when leading opponents at the half.
- Both teams had three players in double figures, with the Lady Raiders Reece' Caldwell leading all scorers with 22 points.
- TCU sophomore Jordan Moore had 12 points and 11 rebounds, her sixth double-double this season.
- In two previous meetings this season vs. TCU, Texas Tech had a combined 21 points off of the bench. In tonight's game, Tech had 24 points off the bench – including 17 at the half. TTU's highest bench point production this season was 28, against Baylor on Feb. 25.
- A.J. Alix (TCU) had nine assists, tying her season high set against TTU earlier in the season.
- Texas Tech held Alix and Jada Butts, the top-scorers for the Horned Frogs this season, to 17 combined points. During the regular season the two scored 27 and 43 points, respectively, against the Lady Raiders.
