Phillips 66 Big 12 Men's Basketball Championship

GAME NOTES

SPRINT CENTER: March 14, 2019

No. 10 West Virginia 79, No. 2 Texas Tech 74

Big 12 Championship Notes

- This is the third meeting between Texas Tech and West Virginia in Big 12 Men's Basketball Championship play, and the second time in as many years. The Mountaineers were 66-63 winners in the teams' previous championship meeting on March 9, 2018.
- Texas Tech is making their 23rd trip to the Big 12 Men's Basketball Championship and it's their second time as a No. 2 seed. The Red Raiders have a 14-23 overall record and a 1-2 record as the 2 seed. They have a 4-2 record in quarterfinal action.
- 2019 marks West Virginia's seventh-consecutive appearance in the Big 12 Men's Basketball Championship, but their first as the No. 10 seed. The Mountaineers have a 8-6 overall record in championship play and a 4-2 record in the quarterfinals.
- This is only the third time a No. 10 seed has advanced to the semifinals. In the first year of the Big 12 Men's Basketball Championship, No. 10 Missouri knocked off No. 2 Texas 80-75 (March 7, 1997) and advanced all the way to the title game. No. 1 seed Kansas easily dispatched the Tigers, however, winning 87-60. The following year, Texas was seeded 10th and downed No. 2 Oklahoma State 65-64 (March 6, 1998).

Individual & Team Notes

- Texas Tech opened the game with three straight makes before going on a dismal shooting drought. The Red Raiders made just one basket in 14 attempts (.071) over a 10:40 stretch in the first half.
- West Virginia opened up a 17-point lead – its third-largest margin of the year against a Big 12 opponent – with a 17-2 run from 13:55-7:02 in the first half.
- WVU freshman Jordan McCabe recorded his seventh-straight double-figure game with 13 points.
- WVU freshman Emmitt Matthews Jr. set a new career-high with 28 points. He bested his previous career-high (13, March 9, 2019 at Oklahoma State) with 15 points in the first half. It's the second-most points scored by a Big 12 freshman this season.
- Nine-point halftime margin is the second-largest in championship play for the Mountaineers. They led TCU by 11 in an 86-66 win on March 10, 2016.
- Second time in championship play that West Virginia has upset an AP Top 25 team. Previous win was a 69-67 triumph on March 11, 2016 over Oklahoma.
- Neither team missed a free throw in the first half; Texas Tech was 6-for-6 and West Virginia 4-for-4.
- Only the third time West Virginia has won back-to-back games on the 2018-19 season. Last was Dec. 22 (74-72 over vs. Jacksonville State) and Dec. 30 (78-68 vs. Lehigh) 2018.
- Texas Tech sophomore Jarrett Culver set a new Red Raider championship high with five steals, tying his season-high.
- Culver recorded his second double-double in championship play and fourth of the season with 26 points and 10 rebounds. It also marks his first 20-plus point game in championship play.

Chris Beard

Jarrett Culver

Texas Tech Red Raiders

West Virginia 79, Texas Tech 74

THE MODERATOR: We are ready to begin with the Red Raiders from Texas Tech, Coach Chris Beard, student-athlete with us is Derek Culver. Coach we will go to you first for an opening statement.

CHRIS BEARD: I will just answer any questions you guys have.

THE MODERATOR: We will go to questions for Jarrett and we'll come back for Coach.

Q. Jarrett, could you speak to the team's slow start. You guys were playing from behind the whole game. What was the impact of that?

JARRETT CULVER: We just didn't come out ready to play. I feel like our leadership wasn't there today, me and some other guys got to get ready to play a big game. We came out slow today, so we just gotta fix it.

Q. Jarrett, what can you learn from this adverse situation? I know Coach says you all can learn from that, that three-game losing streak or the one-possession type deal that happened with y'all. What can you learn from it and what do you take away from it?

JARRETT CULVER: It's definitely a learning experience. We've got to come out better and play 40 minutes. We've got to put 40 minutes together, everybody gotta come out hard and play forty minutes.

Q. Is this a dose of reality for y'all?

JARRETT CULVER: It's definitely a learning experience. I feel like we can learn from it. Losing hurts, but you learn from wins and losses.

Q. Jarrett, last four minutes you're making your charge. They played last night. Did you feel that your fresh legs might have had an edge before the game was ultimately decided?

JARRETT CULVER: I mean, in a way we did. But they came out ready to play, credit to them. They played hard forty minutes. Credit to them.

THE MODERATOR: Okay, Jarrett. Thank you. Questions for Coach?

Q. Two things, just the start and West Virginia's rebounding veracity and how that affected you guys early.

CHRIS BEARD: Yeah, the story today is all about West Virginia. Give them credit. To say that we, I disagree with Culver. He said we came out ready to play. That's disrespecting West Virginia. They played great, won three of on their last five, got a chemistry. Obviously some additions and subtractions from their program and they have some guys that play with joy, and we were concerned about this game. In no way did we take them lightly, they have a Hall of Fame coach and really good players. West Virginia played great. Our game plan was to try to rebound with West Virginia. In no way did we think we could outrebound them, but we wanted to be competitive on the boards. We worked on it for three state days. We wanted to take care of the basketball, have a low turnover game. We did neither. So give West Virginia credit they beat us.

Q. What made 'em so hard to stop today offensively?

CHRIS BEARD: The big thing is offensive rebounds. He created a lot of offense for himself by getting second chance points. He's a talented guy. West Virginia is playing loose right now. They are playing with a lot of confidence. He's a joy to their team. I watched 'em play last night in person, and I told our guys I think this is one of the hottest teams in college basketball. It wouldn't surprise me if they won this tournament.

Q. Coach, with Jarrett's last shot was that what you looking for there? What was the game plan going down the stretch with obviously that one-possession game with West Virginia?

CHRIS BEARD: You know, I got a lot on my mind right now, so I don't want to be wrong. But you're talking about when they were up three?

Q. The last Derek Culver shot.

CHRIS BEARD: I understand, Carlos, they were up three?

Q. Yeah.

CHRIS BEARD: So, in that time you come down it's always about time and score. If you can take the quick two, you do. But I thought, you know, one of our best players, the most valuable player in the Big 12 gets a relatively open look for three. So I thought Jarrett made a good decision on that possession. I want him to take that shot.

THE MODERATOR: Coach, thank you so much.

Bob Huggins

Jordan McCabe

Emmitt Matthews, Jr.

Derek Culver

West Virginia Mountaineers

West Virginia 79, Texas Tech 74

THE MODERATOR: We are joined now by the student-athletes from West Virginia University. Coach Bob Huggins will be here in just a little bit. Our student-athletes are Derek Culver, Jordan McCabe and Emmitt Matthews, Jr. Let's go to questions for them.

Q. Derek, the rebounding was a big advantage tonight. How much did you think you could do that against a team like this?

DEREK CULVER: Yes, sir. I just kept faith, you know, I try to go out there and play with energy, you know, bring energy to my team and play out there with pride and heart and everything else that carried on which made me, you know, go out there and rebound at a high rate.

Q. This is for Emmitt, two of the last three games you've set career highs in helping this team out. What factors do you think has led to that?

EMMITT MATTHEWS, JR.: I think my teammates do a really good job of getting me open. Without them I would be nothing. Coach Huggins does a really good job of getting me in the good spots to get the right shots off and when I'm open I just shoot it.

Q. Jordan, what's the biggest difference in this team? You guys look like you enjoy playing together. You're playing harder. What changed?

JORDAN McCABE: You know, I can't remember exactly when it was during the season that we kind of got everything in order and started to grow day-by-day, but you could just feel a difference in the culture. We knew that needed to shift in terms of our practices and all of our workouts, wherever it may be workout, and wherever, on the court. We started to take steps and strides, and I think to be honest we just got back to what West Virginia does. We got back to doing the things that made us come here in the first place. We watched the teams led by Dax, JC and guys before them, just playing extremely hard and representing West Virginia in the right way. I think once we all bought into that, I think a buy-in is the biggest thing you need out of a successful team and I don't know if we had the buy-in early. But we figured that out and that's been a testament to our success here down the stretch.

Q. Derek, coming off of last night's game Texas Tech was rested coming into this. Was it adrenaline that kicked in in the last four minutes, or what do you think held up for you guys?

DEREK CULVER: Yes, sir. I wouldn't necessarily say it was adrenaline. But I'll say this has been a long season. So with that being said we have had ups and downs and we know how it feels to be down. So when it's time to dig in and we're in the trenches, and you've to go out with your brothers and take the game over and no mishaps. If you take care of those, everything else will fall into place and we were fortunate enough to come up with a W.

THE MODERATOR: Okay, guys, we will let you go back to the locker room. Thank you. Questions for Coach?

Q. Coach, do you feel like you're playing with house money at this point?

BOB HUGGINS: We're playing to get into the NCAA Tournament is what we're doing. We had a meeting. We sat down and talked about it and this is our chance. Two down, two to go.

Q. Bob, how frustrating was it for you this season as its lowest point? Obviously, you guys are starting to climb out of it toward the end. Why did that happen?

BOB HUGGINS: Well, the hardest part is, you know, we had so many injuries and we basically lost four starters and these guys have been great. They believe in what we're doing. They're incredibly coachable. They believe we can win. It seems like every game somebody different steps up. Like Emmitt stepped up today. Jermaine stepped up. Derek stepped up. Seems like every game a different guy steps up and we're guarding better. We're guarding better and rebounding better, and that's been a staple of what we've done over the years.

Q. Coach, how would you sum up the production in the last two or three games from Matthews?

BOB HUGGINS: He's getting more comfortable, I think. That's the biggest thing. He's obviously a talented kid, and he's playing with a lot of confidence. He listens to everything and he's really learning how to move without the ball which is critical for, you know, someone that plays his position and he's shooting the ball better. But he puts time in. Good shooters or great shooters always put time in, and he's be not afraid to put time in.

Q. Bob, can you speak to the importance of getting out to the fast start that you did and how that set the tone?

BOB HUGGINS: Well, it's better than a slow start, I guess. I don't know, I thought our guys were really ready to play. They were really looking forward to this having gotten beat up pretty good in Lubbock. They were looking forward to the game.

THE MODERATOR: Coach, we will let you go back to the locker room and get ready for tomorrow.
