Nebraska Sets Big 12 And School Record While Capturing Seventh Title In Eight Seasons

NORMAN, Okla. — Bree Dority O'Callaghan scored the first-ever perfect 10 on the uneven bars in Big 12 history to win the event title and tied the school record on the beam to lead the Nebraska women's gymnastics team win its first conference title since 1999 and seventh in the last eight seasons under Head Coach Dan Kendig here Saturday.

Fourth-ranked Nebraska captured the Big 12 title with 197.650 points while setting a school and conference record for points, placing six-tenths of a point ahead of runner-up No. 9 Iowa State (197.050), while Oklahoma was third with 196.70 points and Missouri was fourth with 193.675. NU's score marked the fifth time this season it had broken the school record and seventh time this season it has topped 197.0 points in a meet, a feat that had not been accomplished in the program's first 25 years.

"Iowa State and Oklahoma had great meets and really pushed us to win," Kendig said. "It was a total team effort and our only goal was a team championship. Everything else is just icing on the cake."

Following the competition, NU freshman Alecia Ingram was selected as the Big 12's Newcomer of the Year and Gymnast of the Year by a vote of the league's head coaches. The honor marked the first time in Big 12 history that a freshman had won both honors. Ingram is the second straight Husker to win the Gymnast-of-the-Year honors, as Heather Brink won the award in 2000. Ingram is the sixth Husker under coach Dan Kendig to win the Newcomer-of-the-Year award.

"Alecia has fit in well at Nebraska and is extremely gifted and follows our motto 'Totally Dedicated to Excellence,'" Kendig said. "She wants the team to do its best and when she gets on the floor, it is all business."

Eight Husker gymnasts combined for 11 All-Big 12 honors. O'Callaghan (bars, beam), Ingram (bars, vault) and A.J. Lamb (beam, floor) each came away with two honors apiece, while Julie Houk and Tami Harris earned the honor on the bars. In addition, Jen French (beam) and Libby Landgraf (floor) each earned the honor in one event.

The Huskers came from behind in the last event — the balance beam — by shattering the school record with a team score of 49.625, breaking the previous team record of 49.45 set at the 1997 Big 12 Championships in Norman, Okla. Dority O'Callaghan scored a 9.95 on the beam to tie the school record set in 1999 by Laurie McLaughlin at the Masters Classic. Dority O'Callaghan led tied for first place in the event — along with Lamb and Iowa State's Stephanie Sweitzer — leading five Huskers in the top eight placers. The scores for both Dority O'Callaghan and Lamb were personal highs, while French tied a personal best with a 9.925 to place fourth. The title for Dority O'Callaghan was her second of the evening while Lamb's was the first conference title of her career.

"It really feels good, because sometimes you can have good and bad practices, but it feels great when you can go out and hit a routine when the team needs it," Dority O'Callaghan said.

Nebraska closed the gap with an outstanding performance on the bars, setting a school record with a score of 49.725, while taking four of the top five spots in the event. Dority O'Callaghan scored a perfect 10 in the event to earn her first ever Big 12 title, while Alecia Ingram, Julie Houk and Tami Harris tied Sissy Huey of Iowa State for second place with a 9.95. Dority O'Callaghan's score was an NU record, topping the previous best mark of 9.975 by Heather Brink at the 2000 NCAA Regional and Tami Harris this season at the Masters Classic.

"We put (Bree) in the position to do well, and we put her in that position last weekend at Arizona State, but she tried too hard," Kendig said of the perfect performance. "She just learned from her mistakes and hit the routine tonight."

On the vault, the Huskers had strong performances from Wertz, as she tied Shelly Krigen of Iowa State with the top score of 9.875. The title was Wertz's first Big 12 title and second straight event title after scoring a perfect 10 last weekend at Arizona State. Ingram placed fourth (9.80) for NU's only other top-five finish on the event, while Harris placed sixth at 9.775. After two events, Nebraska trailed 98.65-98.30 after the Cyclones scored a 49.375 on the uneven bars.

The Huskers started strong on floor exercise in the first rotation, scoring a 49.40 to hold a slim lead on Iowa State after one event. Four Huskers scored 9.875 or better, including a season high of 9.90 by Lamb and Landgraf, who tied for fourth place overall. Jess Wertz and Jen French also scored 9.875s to help the Huskers give the Huskers a strong start while placing eighth on the apparatus.

In the all-around, ISU took the top two spots, as Krigen won with a 39.55 while Huey placed second with a 39.475. Nebraska, which has had the all-around champion at the Big 12 meet nine of the past 10 years, did not have a competitor as no Husker competed in more than three events.

The Huskers return to action two weeks from tonight, as Nebraska will play host to the NCAA South Central Championships on April 7, at 7 p.m. Tickets for the event are on sale at the NU ticket office (800) 8-Big Red or on-line at Huskers.com
