Nebraska Head Coach Kerry McDermott

On the match against Baylor:

"I thought we played well. They took it to us in doubles, but in singles I thought we played a really good singles match. We played about as well as I think we could've played them. They beat us - hands down they're better and they proved it. I was disappointed but I thought our effort was good, and we actually played a pretty good match - they're just better."

Texas Tech 23-3

Texas Head Coach Michael Center

On the outcome of the match:

"We've been battling through a lot of things this season and there were several times we came up short, but today the team was more aggressive. Winning the doubles point was very important and that confidence carried over into singles. The players were very positive and in the end we made good plays in critical situations."

Texas Tech Head Coach Tim Siegel

On the match against Texas:

"Well, doubles we gave away. I felt like we should've won that doubles point, and obviously that was important. And, then in singles I really feel like Texas played well. They played better than they did last time we played them and they deserved to win. If there's a coach that I'm happy for it's Michael (Center). Obviously you want to win every match, but I'm happy for him because they came out and played well."

Records:

Oklahoma State 20-5

Oklahoma 17-6

Oklahoma State Head Coach James Wadley

On the match against Oklahoma:

"The last time we played them they beat us in the doubles - No. 1 and No. 2. So, I thought our doubles team played really well today. Winning the doubles point was really critical because they won the doubles point the last two times we played them. After we won the doubles point I think it gave our team a lift. At every position in singles the guys pulled through. It was a total team effort today."

Oklahoma Head Coach Paul Lockwood

On the outcome of the match:

"Well, it wasn't a very long tournament, unfortunately. Doubles was close; I thought we were completely outplayed at No. 3 and that put a lot of pressure on Nos. 1 and 2 to come through. They fought hard and had some chances and I have no regret about that."

"As far as singles, I don't think we competed as well as we have throughout the season. I thought we were in better shape than the Oklahoma State players, but I don't think our play or demeanor showed that. I'm disappointed because I thought we would get more production out of this match."

Record:

Texas A&M 15-7

Colorado 9-15

Texas A&M Head Coach Tim Cass

On the victory over Colorado:

We have a lot of respect for Colorado. They played us well a few weeks ago. The doubles turned into a pretty good point. I thought we did a real good job at number two doubles when we got a break of controlling our serve the last two times we served. I was really pleased with that. In singles, it was a little tricky. For us to have to pull out our number two guy and to beat them 4-1 and be up in the third set in the last two matches on ... I was pleased with."

Colorado Head Coach Sam Winterbotham

On earning a tough doubles point over Texas A&M:

"Texas A&M is a good team, they are a top-15 team. When you play a team like that you have to take the opportunities when they are presented to you. We create a couple opportunities a match and it's a case of capitalizing on those. Today, we weren't able to capitalize the opportunity we had in doubles. To A&M's credit, they weathered the storm and then came at us. They came out in singles and took two pretty quick matches that put us behind the eight ball."

Thoughts on the season in general:

"I think the University of Colorado is becoming a very good tennis program. Teams are taking us seriously now. They know that they are in for a tough match with us. I think that is a credit to our conference. All the men's teams are ranked now and that necessarily wasn't the case in the past. We are going to continue to move up in the rankings. Next year, we will be even better than this year and we will see if we can start knocking off some of these top teams."

On today's match:

On facing Oklahoma State in the championship:

"We're excited about playing in the championship. We have a lot of respect for OSU. It's a chance to play another big match."

Texas Head Coach Michael Center

On the team's performance:

Oklahoma State Head Coach James Wadley

On defeating Texas A&M to advance to the Big 12 Championship match:

"Going into the match, I thought it was critical that we won the doubles point, but when we didn't do that, our guys fought back hard in singles. Anytime you win four of six singles matches against a team like Texas A&M, you know that your guys played hard and it took a great effort by all of them."

On the play of senior Boris Kuharic:

"Boris did a super job winning No. 2 singles in straight sets against (Bryan) Wooten, a guy he lost to in straight sets earlier this year in Stillwater."

Texas A&M Head Coach Tim Cass

On today's performance:

"Winning the doubles certainly gave us a chance. We were handicapped and I thought getting that point gave us a chance, and obviously we had a chance in the end. I'm proud of the guys; they really fought hard. Oklahoma State is No. 16 in the country and we gave them all they could handle with a partial lineup."

Oklahoma State Head Coach James Wadley

On the match:

"I thought we played really hard. We were really good at No. 3 doubles and I thought we had some chances at the other two spots, but we just couldn't keep it going. If we would've won the doubles point we could have put a little bit of pressure on Baylor. They are tremendous competitors and a great team. Our No. 1 (Elizaveta Avdeeva) played well today and our No. 5 (Lauren Hommell) played with a broken finger, so there were two high points for us. We have a lot of things to work on this summer and we can take a lot from this experience."

Kansas State Head Coach Steve Bietau

On their victory over Oklahoma:

Things didn't look good for us in the beginning of the match after losing the doubles point. I didn't feel like we played well and we didn't look much better starting out in singles, but the players hung in there and fought back. We're fortunate to come through with the win. After losing 6-1 to Oklahoma in the regular season, I think our players felt like they had a little bit to prove. Win or lose, I think we proved that today, but it's always nice to win."

On playing No. 2 seed Texas in tomorrow's quarterfinals:

"As far as tomorrow goes, Texas pretty much had their way with us last weekend in Manhattan, Kan. Hopefully our players take the same approach and want to show they are better than they looked last weekend. We'll see what happens in the match tomorrow."

Oklahoma Head Coach Mark Johnson

On Oklahoma's play in the tournament and the overall season:

"It's been a good season. We fought through a lot of adversity this year. We had injuries early in the season. One of our top players didn't get to play a match all year. The girls that played this year fought hard just like they did today. They played their best but Kansas State was just a little bit better. We had some chances in some sets. We could have made a run early in singles but you have to give Kansas State credit. They outplayed us at the end and just played well."

Texas Tech Head Coach Cari Groce:

On the victory over Iowa State:

"I think every match in the Big 12, especially at this point in the Big 12 tournament, you have to be sharp and be ready to play no matter who you're playing. We have a young team and for a lot of them it's their first time playing in the Big 12 tournament. I think we were able to work off some of those first Big 12 tournament jitters and step up and play strong. I was really pleased with our efforts today."

On playing No. 4 seed Texas A&M in the quarterfinals:

"I think all the Texas schools look forward to playing each other and Texas A&M is a very good team. We've faced them at A&M where they have a great tennis atmosphere and crowd, so to be able to take another look at them here - at a neutral site - is something that we are definitely looking forward to and excited about."

Iowa State Head Coach Michele Conlon:

On the match and the season:

"We overcame a lot of adversity and several injuries this year and today we came out and really had an opportunity to upset No. 5 seed Texas Tech. Our effort today really says a lot about who we are, our work ethic, drive and competitiveness. This team has some really good qualities and this year has been uplifting despite our losses. I will remember this team for the rest of my career and use this year as a real teaching tool. This year's losses have been a disappointment, but our effort today against an outstanding Tech team was great. Tech has a lot of tools, a great coach and they played really well. We made a lot of improvements today from the last time we played them and I think our experiences today and this season will be good building blocks for us in the long run."

On the victory over Oklahoma State:

It was a close match and our ladies played really well. I am especially proud of Yelena Olshanskaya and Erika Josbena; they really played well today and had two important points for us. I give credit to OSU. We played a real close match earlier this year, and it felt good to get the win today."

Oklahoma State Head Coach Julius Lubicz-Majewski:

On the match and the season:

"Today was a tough day for us, we lost the ones we were supposed to win and we won the ones we were supposed to lose. It is always hard to win after you lose doubles, and then we just didn't show up the rest of the day. However, we are somewhat optimistic heading into next season because our team is so young. This year was difficult when we lost our No. 2 player and had to make some adjustments, but we were happy to get eight wins this season."

Texas Head Coach Jeff Moore

in the match:

"Our team was all business today. In singles, each player was focused on executing a winning game plan. And, our doubles were impressive because there was almost no let-up. Many times, postseason first round matches can be sloppy, but this one was not."

Kansas State Head Coach Steve Bietau

On the team's run in the tournament:

"We were pleased to get into the quarterfinals. We had a lot of inexperience and injuries that hurt us this year and winning the match against Oklahoma (in first round action) was a good close-to-the-end for us. Obviously, it's not fun losing the way we did, but Texas is a great team that is playing really well right now."

Texas A&M Head Coach Bobby Kleinecke

On the victory over Texas Tech:

"This was a good, close college match. The doubles point was really close. We played very well. No. 1 doubles (Anna Lubinsky and Lauren Walker) did a great job of coming away with that win. That is a big win for them, because they are fighting to try and make the NCAA tournament, so I was very proud of Lauren and Anna for pulling that out. No. 2 did a good job of hanging tough. That match could have gone either way, and No. 3 also could have gone either way. We did a good job of fighting through the doubles adversity.

"When we got into the singles, I felt like we beat them at their strength. I've got to give Tech credit. They came out and played very well. Nos. 1, 2 and 3 played very well, especially 2 and 3. It took a lot from us, but we knew this wasn't going to be an easy task, but we were up for it."

Texas Tech Head Coach Cari Groce

On the match:

"The doubles point proved to be a huge momentum boost for the team that won it. I thought that Katja Kovacic played well the entire tournament. I am really pleased with her efforts. I'm proud of our entire team. We got some good leadership out of Tara Browning. She came out big today and was ready to go. We had our opportunities so I think you have to give a lot of credit to Texas A&M. They have a good team and program and they were just better than us today."

On the win over Nebraska:

"We played Nebraska four days ago and had a really long, tough match with them. We knew that it would be another one tonight, but the players were ready to come out and play. We're excited to be playing Texas in the semifinals, but we're not content with just being in the semifinals. We're here to compete and try to win the tournament."

Nebraska Head Coach Scott Jacobson

On today's performance:

"I really thought that Colorado just competed very well today. I was proud of our kids. I thought we hung in there and gave our best effort and that's all you can really ask of your kids - try as hard as you possibly can. We did that today but we just came up on the short end. So, congrats to Colorado and we wish them the best of luck tomorrow."

Baylor Head Coach Joey Scrivano

On the match:

"Texas A&M is a good team; they're going to keep fighting to the end. We knew that and were ready for it."

On the play of sophomore Zuzana Cerna:

"Zuzana wanted a different result than when she played (Lauren) Walker before (a 6-1, 7-5 loss). She played a more disciplined, high percentage match this time."

Texas A&M Head Coach Bobby Kleinecke

On today's performance:

"Today is a disappointing loss for us, no doubt. We were excited to get a chance to play Baylor again. Some things I thought we did better today. Some things I thought we did worse than the first time we played them (a 5-2 Baylor win). We came out here and fought hard, put it on the line and never gave up or got discouraged. We always believed we were going to win."

"A big problem was in the doubles where we had a lot of opportunities early in the match. At No. 1, especially, we had two games where we were at 40-15 or 40-love and ended up losing those games. That was in the first seven games, and if we win both of those, we are up 5-2. The whole match changes complexity right then if you take that. We also had a 4-2 lead at No. 3 doubles. You have to take advantage of those opportunities. We didn't today, but on top of that, we also gave them easy games right after those where we gave up four straight points. That was the difference in the doubles."

"Singles, I thought we did a good job of fighting in a number of spots. I am proud of the fight that this team played with. They played with a lot of heart. They believed it until the end, and I am proud of that attitude."

Texas 19-5

Colorado 12-12

Texas Head Coach Jeff Moore

On the match:

"This match did go more smoothly than I expected because Colorado has had a great tournament and they have been competing at a very high level. I thought the performance level of our players was extremely high from beginning to end. Sometimes when you get ahead in a match, players tend to let up and there was no let up today."

Colorado Head Coach Nicole Kenneally

On the loss to Texas:

"Texas is a good team. They were able to make us play more balls and we weren't able to get our shots in today. Winning the doubles point is always a momentum builder for singles play and we weren't able to get that today so it was definitely key (for Texas)."

On her lone senior, Kendra Strandemo:

"She's been a great member of this team the last four years and one of the best team players in my six years coaching here. It's going to be sad not to have her around next season, as it is with every senior that becomes a member of our program."

Texas 20-5

Texas Head Coach Jeff Moore

On the victory over Baylor:

"It's been typical of this team all year to continue to battle. The team has a very special quality and it has to do with their dynamics - they fight and pull for each other. Both teams really battled and the match was in the balance for what seemed like forever. I think Courtney's (Zauft) win turned the momentum in our favor and that gave Katie (Ruckert) confidence."

Baylor Head Coach Joey Scrivano

On the match:

"You certainly don't help yourself when you lose doubles and I felt like in singles we had matches we could have done better in. At No. 4 (the deciding match), (Daniela) Covello had her chances but (Katie) Ruckert made adjustments and we didn't."
