Quotes from Commissioner Kevin Weiberg

On Men's and Women's Basketball Championships format:

"Our men's basketball coaches have discussed ending their championship on Saturday while the women have discussed formats that would conclude their championship on Sunday. We will continue these discussions and the possible implications that may occur by changing formats with our administrators and board of directors."

On Men's Basketball Scheduling:

"The men's basketball coaches are looking at different scheduling formats for the 16 conference games. We are not sure of the options at this point, but will look into it. The earliest any changes could take effect would be the 2008-09 season."
